Langkawi

The Jewel of Kedah (Malay: Langkawi Permata Kedah), is a district and an archipelago of 104 islands in the Andaman Sea some 30 km off the mainland coast of north-western Malaysia. The islands are a part of the state of Kedah, which is adjacent to the Thailand border. Langkawi is also an administrative district and declared as "duty-free island", with the town of Kuah as its largest town.

Eagle Square

Kuah Town

Makam Mahsuri

- Eagle Square (photo stop): One of Langkawi's best known attractions, a large sculpture of an eagle poised to take flight. Dataran Lang has beautiful miniature fountains, terraces and bridges, making it the ideal place for those postcard-perfect holiday photos.
- Kuah Town: The name "Kuah" is a Malay word meaning "gravy" and involves an old legend of two battling giants who overturned a gigantic pot of curry at the spot where the town now stands. The town is a duty free shopping haven with a wide variety of goods sold at attractive prices.
- Makam Mahsuri: It is a mausoleum that memorializes a beautiful woman called Mahsuri. Legend has it that she was 'framed' & unjustly sentenced to death. Her blood flowed white showing her innocence & she cursed Langkawi for 7 generations. Soon after her death the Siamese attacked and conquered Langkawi, now the tomb becomes one of famous tourist attractions.
- Cenang Beach: One of the most beautiful beaches in Langkawi. What really make the first impression of the beach will be the long stretch of milky white sandy beach with swaying coconut trees in line with the rhythm of waves, the sea in shades of blue, turquoise and green. Another great attraction for visitors here are the large number of shops, stalls, restaurants and spas lined up along the beachside road. You will get all sorts of things here including clothes, chocolates, handicrafts, souvenir items and accessories. There are also many restaurants offer all kinds of dishes including local Malay, seafood, Indian, Arabic and even fusion cuisine.

Important Note: Water sports activities in Cenang Beach are not recommended due to safety reasons.
